This short form Bill of Lading is provided by the Shipper and issued for his convenience and at his request instead of the Carrier's regular longshore form Bill of Lading. Copies of the Carrier's regular longshore form Bill of Lading on the classes presently being stamped or endorsed hereon are available from the Carrier on request and are incorporated in the Bill of Lading by reference to the Carrier's regular longshore form Bill of Lading. The Bill of Lading is subject to the provisions of the U.S. Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of 1924, and other applicable statutes, to the extent that any such Act or Statute may apply to the transportation contract for one or more of the carriers involved. If the Bill of Lading evidences a contract for the carriage of goods by sea or by surface transportation to, from or through countries other than the United States, it shall have effect subject to the provisions of the applicable Acts, statutes or regulations of such countries, to the extent that any such Acts, statutes or regulations may apply to the transportation contract for one or more of the carriers involved. The Carrier's regular longshore form Bill of Lading may contain a number of provisions giving the Carrier certain rights and privileges and certain exceptions and immunities from and limitations of liability additional to those provided by the Acts or Laws referred to above and may extend the benefit of its provisions to stevedores and others. If required by the Carrier, a signed original Bill of Lading, duly endorsed, must be surrendered to the Carrier on delivery of the goods. All agreements with respect to the above goods are superseded hereby and none of the terms hereof shall be deemed waived except in writing by an authorized agent of the Carrier.

As used herein, the terms "Carrier" means any and all carriers whether on land or sea on whose modes of conveyance the goods described on the face hereof are carried. The Bill of Lading evidences a contract for the carriage of goods by sea or from ports of the United States, in foreign trade, or provided for routing within the United States. It shall have effect subject to the provisions of the applicable Acts, statutes or Goods by Sea Act of 1924, and other applicable statutes, to the extent that any such Act or Statute may apply to the transportation contract for one or more of the carriers involved. If the Bill of Lading evidences a contract for the carriage of goods by sea or by surface transportation to, from or through countries other than the United States, it shall have effect subject to the provisions of the applicable Acts, statutes or regulations of such countries, to the extent that any such Acts, statutes or regulations may apply to the transportation contract for one or more of the carriers involved. The Carrier's regular longshore form Bill of Lading may contain a number of provisions giving the Carrier certain rights and privileges and certain exceptions and immunities from and limitations of liability additional to those provided by the Acts or Laws referred to above and may extend the benefit of its provisions to stevedores and others. If required by the Carrier, a signed original Bill of Lading, duly endorsed, must be surrendered to the Carrier on delivery of the goods. All agreements with respect to the above goods are superseded hereby and none of the terms hereof shall be deemed waived except in writing by an authorized agent of the Carrier.
