Contract Conditions, including terms of Country-Wide Transportation, Inc Broker Carrier Contract (available upon request):

- Countrywide is considered a collection conduit and acts as a constructive trustee of freight charges held for the benefit of the motor carrier
- Carrier must contact Countrywide before accepting any changes in this contract, including, but not limited to reconsignment, unloading, quantities or weight.
- By accepting this contract you agree that Countrywide cannot be liable for truck ordered not used charges or vice versa, load ordered not picked up.
- Failure of carrier to perform contract as agreed can result in penalties being assessed against them by Countrywide. PENALTIES WILL BE ASSESSED IF SHIPMENT IS MOVED BY RAIL
- Carrier is expressly barred from tendering this freight to another motor carrier, broker or freight forwarder. Carrier named on contract forfeits all payments if double brokered. Freight must be picked up, transported and delivered by carrier/MC# named above only.
- Carrier agrees to No detention, No TONU, No Layover, No accessorial charges whatsoever. All fines are to be paid by driver upon arrival in form of electronic check or money order. No reimbursement for late, missed, rescheduling appointments or restacking fees.
- Carrier assumes all responsibility for correct loading, count and safe transport of shipment and condition of freight on delivery. Bill of Lading MUST be signed by consignee
- Carrier agrees freight will be transported entirely under all insurances of the carrier and MC# named on this contract. The above carrier authorizes broker to contact the insurance provider and producer for any reason including filing a cargo claim.
- Carrier must abide by all Federal Motor Carrier rules, including drivers hours of service regulations. Carrier shall endeavor to maintain a satisfactory U.S. DOT safety rating but under no circumstances is the Carrier allowed to provide services under this Contract if their Safety Rating falls to Unsatisfactory
- Dispatch directions are only suggestions. The driver is not required to follow them.
- Driver agrees NOT to read, check or respond to phone calls, text messages, voicemails or emails sent by Countrywide while operating a motor vehicle
- Carrier Agrees to abide by all DOT rules regarding Electronic Log Compliance, ELD. Carrier agrees to submit ELD compliance plan and tracking information when requested
