*If the shipment moves between two ports by a carrier by water, the law requires that the bill of lading shall state whether it is carrier's or shipper's receipt.
Subject to Section 7 of the conditions, if this shipment is to be delivered to the consignee without recourse on the consignor, THE CONSIGNOR shall sign the following statement: The carrier shall not make delivery of this shipment without payment of freight and all other charges.
RECEIVED, subject to the classifications and lawfully filed tariffs in effect on the date of the issue of receipt by the carrier of the property described in the original Bill of Lading, the property described above in apparent good order, except as noted (contents and condition of contents of packages unknown), marked, consigned, and destined as indicated above, which shall remain the sole risk of the carrier being understood throughout this contract, making any person or corporation in possession of the property under the contract agree to carry to its said property over all of any portion of any route to destination and as to each party at any time intended in all of any of said property, that every service to be performed here under shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of the Uniform Domestic Freight Bill of Lading set forth (1), in Uniform Freight Classifications in effect on the date hereof, if this is a rail or rail-water shipment, or (2) in the applicable motor carrier classification or tariff in effect on the date of this shipment.
SHIPPER hereby certifies that he is familiar with all the terms and conditions of the said bill of lading set forth in the classification or TARIFF which governs the transportation of this shipment, and the said terms and conditions are hereby agreed to by the shipper and accepted for himself and his assigns.
THIS is to certify that the above named materials are properly classified, packaged, marked, and labeled, and are in proper condition for transportation according to the applicable regulation of the U.S. Department of Transportation.
