Subject: Acknowledgement of Nature's Variety Requirements related to FSMA Sanitary Transportation Rules.

Responsibilities of Carrier:

- ☐ Ensure the vehicles & transportation equipment be designed of such material & workmanship as to be suitable & cleanable for their intended use to prevent the transported food from becoming unsafe.
- ☐ Ensure vehicles & transportation equipment meet the Shipper's specifications.
- ☐ Ensure the vehicles & transportation equipment are maintained in a sanitary condition for their intended use as to prevent the transported food from becoming unsafe during transportation.
- ☐ Ensure raw (unprocessed) foods or nonfood items are not transported in the same load with Nature's Variety finished products. If requested, able to provide information that identifies the previous cargo transported in the vehicle.
- ☐ If requested, able to provide information that describes the most recent cleaning of the vehicle.
- ☐ Develop & implement written procedures that specify practices for cleaning, sanitizing, and inspecting vehicles & transportation equipment used in the transportation.
- ☐ Provide adequate training to personnel engaged in transportation operations, including awareness of potential food safety problems that may occur during food transportation & basic sanitary transportation practices. The training must be provided upon hiring and as needed thereafter. Carrier must establish & maintain records documenting the date & type of training and the person(s) trained.
- ☐ Ensure seals on all outbound vehicles transporting Nature's Variety products are properly applied.
- ☐ When products are rejected/returned by the Receiver due to a nonconformance to the above requirements, the Carrier is responsibility to reimburse Nature's Variety for the compromised product, transportation cost and any other service fees.

Additional responsibilities of Carrier for transporting refrigerated/frozen foods

- ☐ Pre-cool each mechanically refrigerated cold storage compartment as specified by the Shipper.
- ☐ Nature's Variety requires the vehicle to be pre-cooled to 20°F or below.
- ☐ Ensure the vehicles & transportation equipment are designed & equipped to maintain temperature control to prevent the food from becoming unsafe during transportation operations.
- ☐ Ensure the vehicles & transportation equipment are designed & equipped to maintain temperature control to meet Nature's Variety transportation temperature requirement during transportation.
- ☐ For transporting frozen product, set the reefer between 0°F and negative 10°F.
- ☐ If using time/temperature recording device, the record must not show temperature above 10°F for longer than 30 minutes at any time during transportation.
- ☐ Recording device must be checked for calibration and that calibration check documented.
- ☐ Able to demonstrate that it has maintained temperature conditions during the transportation consistent with the operating temperature specified by the Shipper. Such demonstration may be accomplished by any appropriate means agreeable to the Carrier and Shipper.
- ☐ Develop & implement written procedures to ensure compliance with the provisions for temperature control.
