The carrier and driver agree to follow all DOT rules and regulations governing the safe movement of goods in interstate commerce.

Detention starts at your appointment time. There will be no detention if the driver is late. Any late fees imposed will be the carrier's responsibility and will be deducted from the RC.

The carrier is responsible for communicating any issues or delays from the scheduled pickup, in-transit, and delivery. Report any delays immediately and by any means necessary (phone, email, or text).

Rate reductions start at $100 per incident and can go up to 50%, depending on the individual situation.

If the load has been proven to be double-brokered, the carrier will not be paid.

IF A TEAM IS REQUIRED—A 50% rate reduction will occur if it's found and proven that a required team load was run by a solo driver. Both drivers are required to check in at the shipper with a valid CDL.

By accepting this rate tender, the carrier and driver understand these instructions and agree to the above-mentioned terms. The carrier/ driver also agrees to have the hours to make the scheduled pickup and delivery times.

This is a legal and binding rate contract agreed upon with your signature, whether electronic, email, or PDF.
