SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:Vertical E-tracks needed.

Driver must have vertical e tracking in the trailer. It must be no further than 2 feet apart and start no more that 18 inches from the ground. If the trailer is rejected for any reason we will not pay a TONU. This load is considered time sensitive and any delays must be communicated at the time of occurrence. The driver must call each stop before delivery to verify unloading times and days of operation. Each stop will have its very own BOL / POD. A POD will need to be signed and submitted for each stop in order to be paid on this load. If there is any confusion as to what needs to be signed by each delivery please call us. Most deliveries are closed on Sunday and Monday. In order for chance that detention to be paid we must have an email sent to us at the the time of the drivers arrival, after 1 hour of waiting and after 2 hours of waiting. If these emails are not sent at the correct times we will not pay detention. You can not tell us after the driver has sat for 2 hours with no prior notice that we are on detention time. Detention on these loads is still at our discretion only even with the proper emails.

The driver must inspect the freight at the time of being loaded to insure there is no damage. Drivers are allowed on the dock at the time of loading. If a unit being loaded is damaged at the time of loading the driver must make the shipper and the broker aware before leaving. The driver also must count the product to make sure the number of units being loaded matches what is on the BOL. Any discrepancies with the unit count or damage at time of loading can result in a claim. Some loads may be high value and it is the driver and your responsibility to know if this is a high value load as some loads will be valued over our standard insurance limit. Any damage claim on this shipment that is not covered by insurance is the the carriers responsibility. This load is considered time sensitive! Any delays that occur must be communicated at the time of occurrence by phone and email (FST@armstrongtransport). If the drivers are late to the delivery for any reason we will have the option to reduce the rate by $50.00 per hour past the missed delivery appointment.
