Carrier shall defend, indemnify and hold Broker and its shipper customer harmless from any claims, actions or damages, arising out of its performance under this Agreement, including cargo loss and damage, theft, delay, damage to property, and personal injury or death. Neither Party shall be liable to the other for any claims, actions or damages due to the negligence or intentional act of the other Party, or the shipper. The obligation to defend shall include all costs of defense as they accrue.

Carrier's liability for any cargo damage, loss, or theft from any cause shall be determined under the Carmack Amendment, 49 U.S.C. §14706 if applicable; however, liability for exempt commodities and processing cargo loss and damage claims shall be determined by: DRC Trading Practices, or Blue Book Transportation Guidelines, or NAPTWG Best Practices by agreement of the Parties and if no agreement then by one of the above associations' guidelines named above at the selection of the Broker. and Notwithstanding the terms of 49 CFR 370.9, Carrier shall pay, decline or make settlement offer in writing on all cargo loss or damage claims within 30 days of receipt of the claim. Failure of Carrier to pay, decline or offer settlement within 60 days shall be deemed an admission by Carrier of full liability for the amount claimed and a material breach of this Agreement.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Carrier shall not knowingly solicit freight shipments (or accept shipments) for a period of six (6) month(s) following termination of this agreement for any reason, from any shipper, consignor, consignee, or other customer of Broker, when such shipments of shipper customers were first tendered to Carrier by Broker.

In the event of breach of this provision, Broker shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief and in the event it is successful, Carrier shall be liable for all damages, costs and expenses incurred by Broker, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees.
